1. The Prague Regional National Committee reckons with an increase in revenue in 1955 by 25 percent as compared with 1954. Sources which will yield the increase are chiefly the wages tax and the income taxes on cooperatives.
2. Studies are under way for various reliefs and exemptions still applicable to the wages taxes to be abolished or charged so as to provide more money for the treasury. This corresponds with a number of other measures, most of which are intended to achieve the utmost economy in administration.
3. A reorganization of health insurance is under preparation. A special commission has been created for the purpose by the Central Committee of the Communist Party. No details are known, but the main object of the reorganization is economy.
